

Top Dog Food and Supply

We have a new dog food distribution company that will deliver raw meat to consumers. We want the truck to be humorous or clever so that people around town/state will recognize it and talk about it like: "Hey did you see the Top Dog truck in town? Isn't it funny/cute/great?"

We want it to be bright or have a big, cute dog that will attract people's eyes to it.

It would be nice to have a short catchy phrase. Something like:

- Just Chew it! (a shoe company takeoff)
- Get Real. Get Raw.
- Real Dogs Eat Raw
- Feed me raw. I'll lick you later.

We may need to precede any short phrase with a message for those who don't know anything about raw feeding, such as:

For a Healthy & Happy Dog/Pet...

We want our logo and/or url on the truck too.

We want pet owners feeding their dogs raw because it is healthier and makes dogs happier. It is what nature intended and, for many pet owners, it has eliminated many health problems.
