UI ELEMENTS

The image displays a grid of 12 examples of dropdown menus, organized into four rows and three columns. The rows represent different sizes: BIG DROPDOWN, MEDIUM DROPDOWN, SMALL DROPDOWN, and SIMPLE DROPDOWN. The columns represent different states: Normal, Filled, and Disabled. Each example shows a dropdown menu with its current selection and a downward arrow. Some examples include a height dimension (20px, 12px) indicated by a pink arrow. The 'SIMPLE DROPDOWN' row shows an example with the text 'Sort by latest' and a dropdown arrow. The 'DROPDOWN (OPENED)' row shows a dropdown menu that is open, displaying a list of items with a checkmark next to the selected item.
