

Red Dog Home Buyer LLC (real estate investing)

reddoghomebuyer.com

Obviously I love my dark red golden doggie boys (see photos at bottom) hence the idea. I think a cute red dog softens what likely is a very difficult time for someone needing to sell their home.

This is my current logo (a house with a lifesaver) and was a preset option for my website.

My #1 favorite

Buffalo Plaid.

Disregard cat negative space. Only showing this because I like the colors and buffalo plaid cape. The tail and silhouette are not very good.
