

Anadri Chisolm-Noel

EMBA, EdM, CPTD

Executive Coach ● Talent Management & Diversity Consultant

Coaching Philosophy

"Each client is an expert in their career and life. My role as a coach is to deepen self-awareness, challenge limiting beliefs or saboteurs, and enable leaders to explore important topics in a private, supportive space.

As diversity, equity, belonging, and inclusion continue to be essential business drivers, I help clients explore how these dynamics influence their ability to lead and influence others and shape an inclusive culture."

PROFILE

Over 20 years of experience in financial services, media, nonprofit, and higher education organizations.

Transformed leadership and employee development by creating innovative, award-winning, competency-based leadership and mentoring programs.
