EXOTIC LOCATIONS

Explore our stunning destinations! We have scoured the planet and settled on these 6 epic locations to run our live aboard courses. Our locations are truly unique...

• Exotic

• Vibrant cultural experiences

• Plenty of islands and white sand beaches

• Consistent winds and sunshine

• Unique Activities: snorkelling, paddle boarding, hiking...

EXUMAS, BAHAMAS

Situated in the North Caribbean, the Exumas are the most beautiful part of the Bahamas. Three hundred and sixty five islands to explore!

Crystal waters, warm weather and an even warmer welcome, it's a home from home for many of our North American future skippers.

Our Exumas trips are best known for:

LEARN MORE

SEA OF CORTEZ, MEXICO

The Sea of Cortez is the best West Coast location to learn to sail with a wide range of water and waves.

Explore deserted beaches and coves, teeming with marine life, but where there's privacy and space for those who want to get away from it all.

Our Mexico trips are best known for:

LEARN MORE

GRENADINES, CARIBBEAN

Discover the most beautiful and unspoilt islands of the Caribbean.

The most idyllic part of the South Caribbean, unknown by the 'all-inclusive' crowd and rarely visited by cruises.

Our Grenadines trips are best known for:

LEARN MORE

TAHITI, SOUTH PACIFIC

Tahiti trips visit some of the most desirable and picturesque waters and islands worldwide.

Quintessential south seas perfection with jagged jungle-covered peaks and turquoise lagoons

Our Tahiti trips are best known for:

LEARN MORE

MALLORCA, SPAIN

The azure waters of the West Mediterranean provide a wonderful backdrop to your Nautilus experience.

Visit ancient towns and spectacular beaches while enjoying the vibrant Spanish culture, language, and food.

Our Mallorca trips are best known for: cuisine, culture, sophistication and relaxation.

LEARN MORE

TROGIR, CROATIA

Croatia is truly one of the most incredible destinations in Europe to explore on a sailboat.

Situated at the edge of both the Adriatic and Mediterranean sea, you'll experience an idyllic coastline with impressive scenery.

WHY LEARN TO SAIL IN MALLORCA?

ABOUT THIS DESTINATION

Mallorca, in the Balearic Islands, is truly a magical place! These Mediterranean Islands are rich in history and culture. Join us aboard a sexy new monohull or catamaran for a week as you learn how to sail and earn your ASA certifications (ASA 101, 103, 104 and 114 are offered). An amazing place to embark on your own sailing journey.

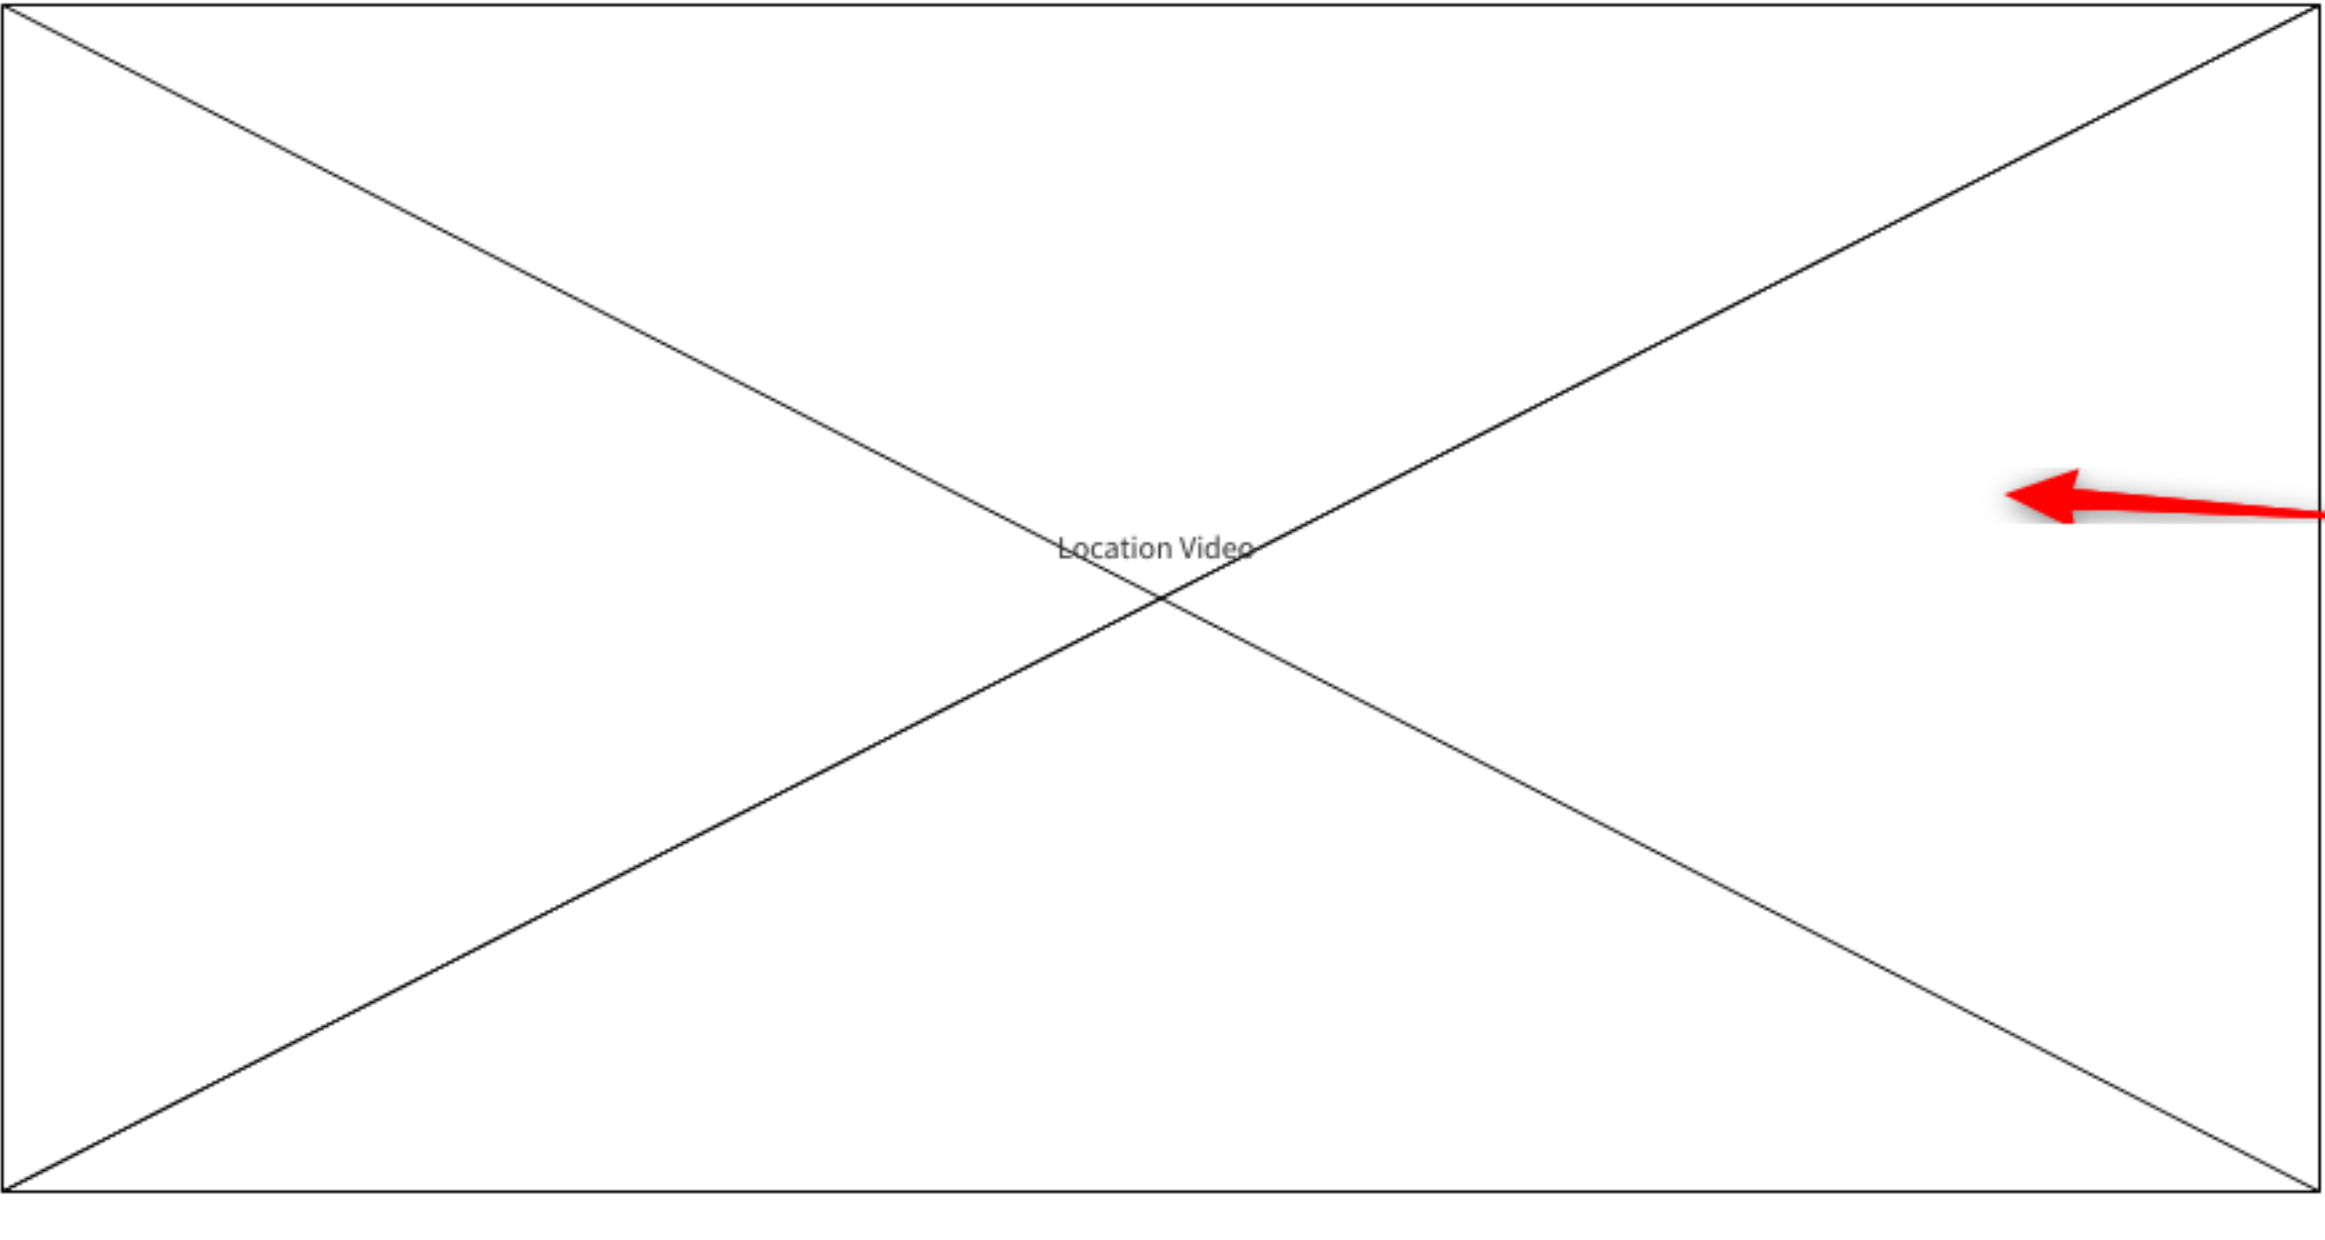

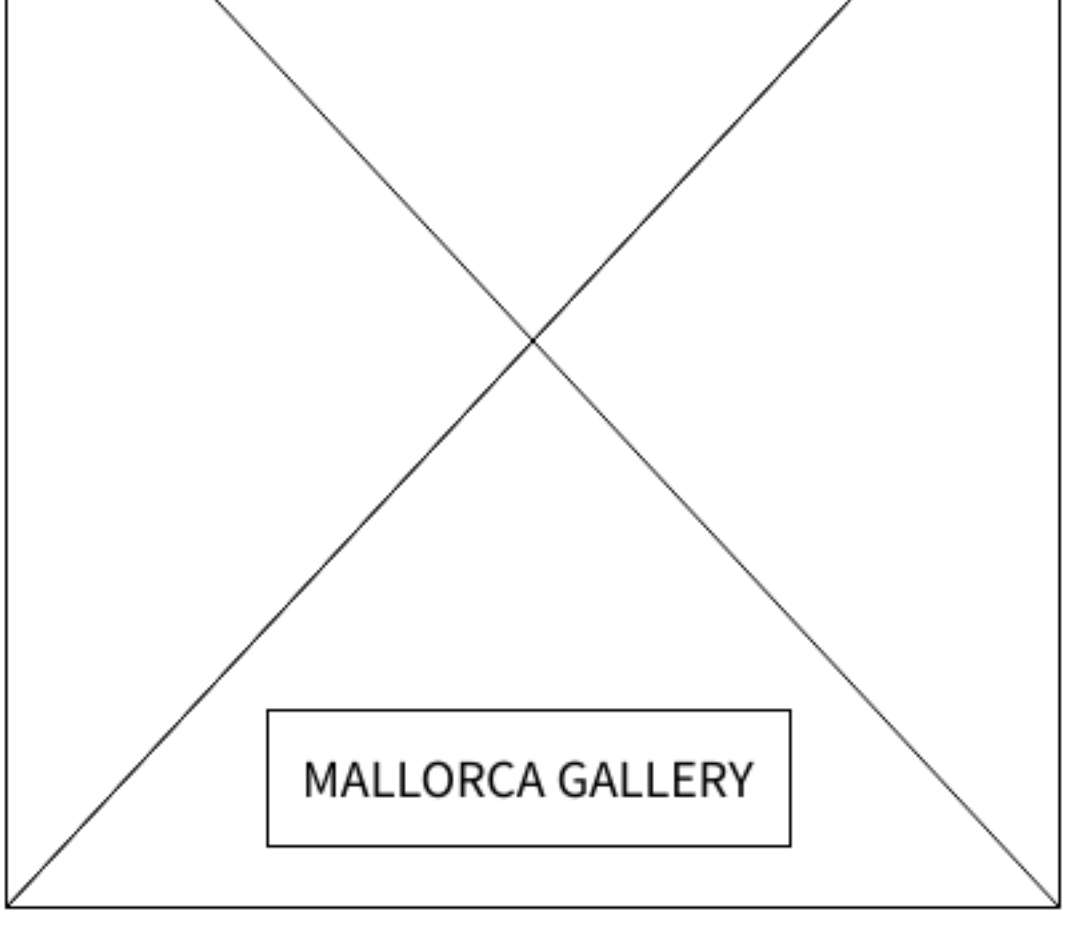

WHAT MAKES MALLORCA SPECIAL?

You will love the old towns and fortresses on the adventure! One of the highlights of sailing in this part of Spain is the incredible food and wine everywhere you go. As if that's not enough, picture gorgeous coves and white sand beaches. A must-visit destination!

EXAMPLE ITINERARY AND MAP

This can be like the one we discussed and consistent for all the pages across the site

SATURDAY
Fly into Palma de Mallorca, airport code PMI, and catch a taxi to Cala Nova marina. We will board the boat, get settled and head out for an amazing Spanish dinner!

SUNDAY
Do a chart briefing, systems overview and check all the equipment on the boat. Set sail for the the most beautiful white sand beach on the entire island, Es Trenc. Anchor, swim and enjoy the turquoise water. After some fun, do your first formal lessons aboard.

MONDAY
After a detailed look at engine operation and maintenance, head out and learn how to sail! You'll learn points of sail, sail theory, and then head out to practice your sail trim. Sail up the coast to Cala D'Or a beautiful bay filled with lots of yachts, and an abundance of fine dining restaurants overlooking the bay. Get your first taste of "med mooring"!

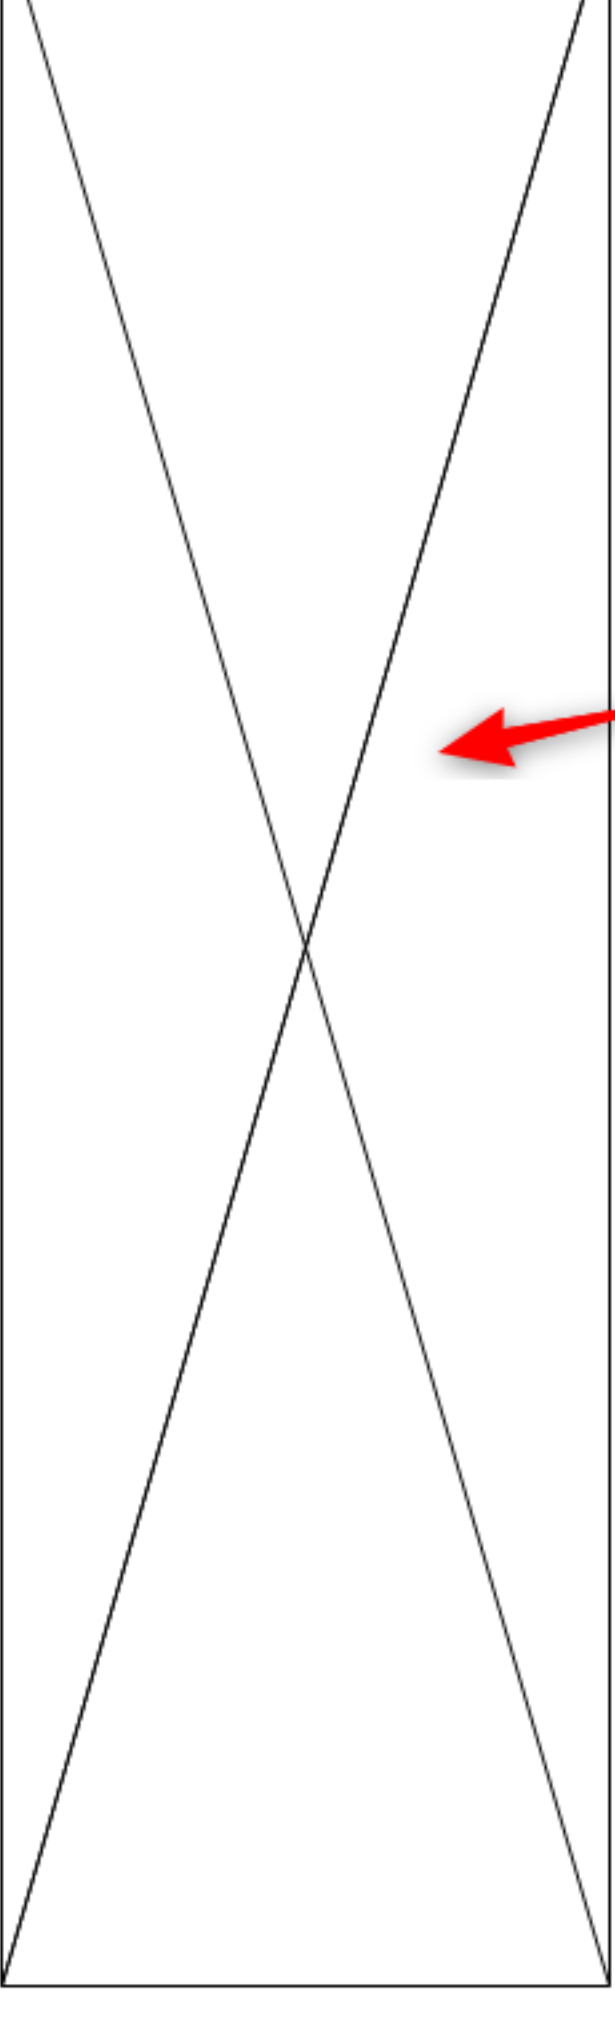

TUESDAY
After a brief morning lesson, motor down the coast to Mondrago, a beautiful marine park. Learn anchoring techniques and then go for a swim or explore the caves along the rocky bay. After lunch, pop the sails and chart a course for Cabrera island. Anchor under the shadow of the old fortress and enjoy this stunning anchorage.

WEDNESDAY
Hike up to the top of the fortress and enjoy the breathtaking views over the island. After summiting, head down to the small "cantina" on the island for a cold beer and some tapas. You'll spend the rest of the day here in Cabrera wrapping up lessons, testing and just enjoying the anchorage.

THURSDAY
Chart a course and set sail for Porto Vells, just over 30 nautical miles away. This will be a fun passage! By this point you will be in charge of all the charting, navigation, sail trim and be the captains for this leg. Upon arrival drop the anchor in the lovely little cove at Porto Vells, explore the beach, or go for a paddle board session.

FRIDAY
We weigh anchor early and sail to Illetes, a beautiful little anchorage. Take your final tests and celebrate passing! After lunch it's the final sail back to marina Cala Nova for docking practice. Friday night we will go out to celebrate all our new captains, and then spend that final night on the boat.

SATURDAY
We are off the boat by 8am and you are free to fly home, or take a couple of extra days to explore the rest of the beautiful island of Mallorca!

WHY A LIVE ABOARD COURSE?

A live aboard sailing course is the ultimate way to learn to sail! For a week you will eat, live, learn and play aboard a modern sailing yacht under the careful watch of a highly rated instructor.

Each day you will set sail exploring numerous islands, putting your newfound learning and skills to the test, and getting a real taste of what the cruising lifestyle is all about! Live Aboard courses are an intense, immersive experience that gets you on the fast track to your sailing dreams

THE NAUTILUS DIFFERENCE

You Deserve the Best Live Aboard Course in the Industry...

Award-winning instructors are flown in for your course

CATAMARAN LIVEABOARD ASA SAILING COURSES

Catamarans have exploded in popularity in the last 5 years! They are faster on most points of sail, more spacious and comfortable, usually have more, allow access to shallower water and typically have more amenities onboard (think AC, water maker, and multiple fridges).

Our catamaran courses are our most popular live aboard course! Earn your American Sailing Association 101, 103, 104 and 114 certifications on a week-long live aboard course in one of our stunning destinations.

Not sure whether to do a catamaran or a monohull course? If in doubt, do a catamaran course as you can always charter monohulls with this cert too!

However, if you want just monohull sailing training, then we also can offer this training at the same locations.

2 High-quality images of Catamaran boats

The first image can be internal, and the second external ( of the Catamaran boat )

MONOHULL LIVEABOARD ASA SAILING COURSES

Monohulls are a blast to sail! For those who love the feel of feeling and the purity of sailing, these courses are a great option.

If you know you will be buying a monohull or only sailing monohulls, then you should definitely learn to sail on a monohull.

We conduct monohull courses on beautiful new monohulls in the 46-52 foot range, to help you earn your ASA 101, 103 and 104 certifications.

All of our courses have a maximum of 4 students aboard to make sure you truly get the experience you need to confidently sail monohulls.

3 THE SKIPPER

We have a number of extremely experienced and gifted skippers, all hand-picked. We will make sure you know who will be taking you on this special journey.

4 THE ASA CERTS

You can choose whether to get your full certs covering catamarans, or monohull. It will be a holiday, but one where you earn your badges.

We can show how clickable these images are by when the user's mouse hovers over them, they highlight or pop out the screen a little, these little effects are simple yet effective enough to be understood as clickable images.

THE AMERICAN SAILING ASSOCIATION ('ASA')

What is the ASA?

The American Sailing Association (ASA) is one of the largest and most respected sailing certification entities in the world, with over 500,000 certifications issued. It doesn't matter what country you are from (you don't have to be American!) to earn these internationally recognized certifications...

Where are these certifications recognized?

The ASA certifications are recognized worldwide by every major charter company including Dream Yacht Charters, Moorings, Sunsail, Navigare and others...

Why do I need formal certifications?

If you are planning on chartering internationally you need to be able to show that you have met recognized standards that prove you know how to sail and operate a yacht. For future boat owners, having formal sailing certifications is becoming a requirement to obtain insurance on your personal vessel.

ASA114 CRUISING CATAMARAN CERTIFICATION

Prerequisites: Basic Keelboat Sailing (ASA101) and Basic Coastal Cruising (ASA103) certifications.

Demonstrated ability to skipper a sloop-rigged, auxiliary powered keelboat (or catamaran, if course is conducted on such) of approximately 30 to 45 feet in length during a multi-day cruise upon inland or coastal waters in moderate to heavy winds (up to 30 knots) and sea conditions. Course is conducted as a live-aboard cruise of at least 48 hours. Knowledge of provisioning, galley operations, boat systems, auxiliary engine operation, routine maintenance procedures, advanced sail trim, coastal navigation including basic chart plotting and GPS operation, multiple-anchor mooring, docking, health & safety, emergency operations, weather interpretation, and dinghy/tender operation.

ASA104 BAREBOAT CRUISING

Prerequisites: Basic Keelboat Sailing (ASA101) and Basic Coastal Cruising (ASA103) certifications

Demonstrated ability to skipper a sloop-rigged, auxiliary powered keelboat (or catamaran, if course is conducted on such) of approximately 30 to 45 feet in length during a multi-day cruise upon inland or coastal waters in moderate to heavy winds (up to 30 knots) and sea conditions. Course is conducted as a live-aboard cruise of at least 48 hours. Knowledge of provisioning, galley operations, boat systems, auxiliary engine operation, routine maintenance procedures, advanced sail trim, coastal navigation including basic chart plotting and GPS operation, multiple-anchor mooring, docking, health & safety, emergency operations, weather interpretation, and dinghy/tender operation.

ASA103 BASIC COASTAL CRUISING

Prerequisites: Basic Keelboat Sailing (ASA101) certification

Demonstrated ability to skipper a sloop-rigged auxiliary powered (outboard or inboard engine) keelboat of approximately 25 to 35 feet length by day in moderate winds and sea conditions. Knowledge of cruising sailboat terminology, basic boat systems, auxiliary engine operation, docking procedures, intermediate sail trim, navigation rules, basic coastal navigation, anchoring, weather forecast interpretation, safety and seamanship

ASA103 BASIC KEELBOAT SAILING

Prerequisites: None

Demonstrated ability to skipper a sloop-rigged keelboat of approximately 20 to 27 feet in length by day in light to moderate winds and sea conditions. Knowledge of basic sailing terminology, parts and functions, helm commands, basic sail trim, points of sail, buoyage, seamanship and safety including basic navigation rules to avoid collisions and hazards. Auxiliary power operation is not required.

Note: The United States Coast Guard has granted approval for ASA101 Basic Keelboat Sailing to satisfy certain merchant mariner credential examination requirements and safe boating training requirements.

SAILING CHARTER – WHAT’S IN MY BAG?

What’s in My Bag? I’m often asked, what’s in my bag? What do you carry in your bag when you travel to charter?”

The only thing I like less than packing for vacation is unpacking once I get home. Since I can’t help with the latter, let’s tackle the former. How do you decide what ...

Which is better? A catamaran or a monohull I’m often asked by my students why one would choose a sailing monohull or a sailing catamaran for their adventures.

The simple answer is: There is no simple answer — it depends on a lot of things, perhaps the most important one is your preference. “Yeah, well,

HOW TO JOIN THE TRIBE?

To embark on these luxurious and action packed trips, you must first have completed a course with Nautilus.
With this you are now an Alumni and part of the Nautilus Tribe, ready for adventures with groups like-minded individuals!

ABOUT FLOTILLAS & TRIBE EVENTS

We love being able to provide our alumni with fantastic opportunities to gain more sailing experience, deepen their knowledge, and discover beautiful cruising areas.

~~We have alumni that have done multiple sailing trips with us now, and always look forward to the next Nautilus adventure...~~

Travelling alone? Join us on a lead boat with a Nautilus instructor at the helm for a week of fun and adventure with like-minded alumni.

Or, ready to charter your own boat? Bring some family or friends and do your first charter under the watchful eye of a Nautilus instructor who knows the area.

We also offer opportunities for gaining blue water experience on a delivery or an offshore trip...
