MYTHIC ESTATE WINERY

New and Improved

We're used to seeing big, rich, oak-laden malbec from Argentina in Australia, but thanks to the efforts of Daniela Penno and Germán Fumis of Sydney-based importer Artisan Malbec, some incredibly interesting new-wave versions are reaching our shores. The 2016 Sylvestra Familia Bressia Malbec (A$35) from Luján de Cuyo, Mendoza, is a largely unoaked, yet complex and delicious medium-bodied wine. "The new generations of winemakers are looking for something easier to drink, fruity and fresh, and this is a great example," says Penno. For a uniquely Argentinian rosé, check out the fresh, fruit and mineral-driven 2016 Mythic Mountain Rosé Malbec (A$26). Go to artisanmalbec.com.au

The idea for MYTHIC was born when CASARENA winery manager Marcelo Waldheim and Winemaker Bernardo Bossi Bonilla teamed up with the common goal of creating the ultimate expression of emblematic grape varieties from the varying wine regions in Argentina and beyond... crafting wines of uncompromising quality, each with a unique oenological identity.

The project began in 2013, utilising 20 hectares (50 acres) of top-quality vines located in the famed Agrelo district; aiming to rediscover the original roots of the Malbec grape in Luján de Cuyo, arguably the most well-respected and recognised terroir in Mendoza Province.

BODEGA BRESSIA

Bodega Bressia is a 49-acre family winery owned by Walter Bressia, a famous winemaker of over 30-years and one of the most renowned winemakers in Argentina. The winery is located in Agrelo, Luján de Cuyo which is the oldest and principal wine region in Argentina.

Head winemaker Walter Bressia fully embraces his ancestral roots, keeping their family values and personal dedication to all of their high quality wine grapes.

Their goal is to create a range of 'exclusive, emblematic and transcendental wines'. His winery is completely in family hands where the product enjoys extra attention, which is a great advantage of small production wineries.

The wines Bressia is putting his name on are widely considered to be among the best produced in all of Argentina with presence in the most important wine markets around the world.

Variety: Secret Blend from French barriques
Vintage: 2010. Alc. 14.5%
Bressia's final masterpiece and one of the most expensive icon wines from Argentina. It is a blend of the winery's best Malbec grapes from their vineyards in Luján de Cuyo. It is a limited edition wine with only 800 bottles produced. The blend was aged for 24 months in new French oak barrels and then stored for 12 months in the bottle.

BRESSIA PROFUNDO      6      $53.90      $323.40

Region: Tupungato, Uco Valley, Mendoza
Variety: Malbec, Cab Sav, Merlot, Shiraz
Vintage: 2012 Alc. 13.5%
Profundo started in Argentina the era of the "Assemblages", wines from various grapes combined in different proportions, achieving a singular, complete wine with great definition. Aged 12 months in French and American oak and one year in bottle, this wine is a shining example of Bressia's ability to achieve nearly flawless elegance and complexity in his blends. Only 8,000 bottles were produced.

BRESSIA CONJUERO      6      $106.55      $636.90

Region: Tupungato, Uco Valley, Mendoza
Variety: Malbec, Cab Sav, Merlot
Vintage: 2010. Alc. 14.5%
The Conjuero wine is Walter Bressia's crown jewel, and produced in the extremely limited quantities befitting such a jewel (approximately 2,500 bottles). An elegant, full-bodied wine, with a long finish that leaves a seductive, pleasurable sensation. This wine comes from high quality grapes grown in the Uco Valley and was aged for 18 months in new French and American oak barrels, then in bottle for 24 months.

BRESSIA MONTECREOLO      6      $38.30      $229.80

Region: Luján de Cuyo, Mendoza
Variety: 100% Malbec
Vintage: 2014 Alc. 14%
For all the lovers of full-bodied, juicy red wines, this 100% Malbec blend will not disappoint. The Malbec grapes come from three different vineyards in Agrelo, Luján de Cuyo. Intense red color with black tones and sufficient concentration to be stored for several years. Its aromas hint of ripe red fruits mixed with the oak in which it was aged. On the palate it offers very good body, with delicate, friendly tannins. Long, harmonious finish.

BRESSIA LAGRIMA CANELA - Out of Stock      6      $60.50      $363.00

Region: Tupungato, Uco Valley, Mendoza
Variety: Chardonnay - Semillon
Vintage: 2013. Alc. 13.8%
Bressia describes it as "a white wine for red wine drinkers". The grapes come from the Uco Valley, where the climate is cooler, and this is a white in the style of a great Burgundian. It has fresh, elegant floral aromas as well as a touch of oak from its oak aging. It is barrel fermented and aged for 14 months in French and American oak. The most complex white wine in Bressia with a miniscule production of less than 2,100 bottles.

FINCA AGOSTINO WINERY

José Pedro Gómez has over 35 years of experience working in different wineries across Argentina and other countries. He has been asked to participate as president and judge in countless national and international wine competitions and tastings.

Finca Agostino restaurant has quickly established itself as the must-eat-at-place in Mendoza.

Finca Agostino is the story of four brothers: Vincenzo, Rosalía, Sebastian and Miguel Agostino, who lived their childhood in Mendoza before settling with their family in Canada in the sixties. The memory of Mendoza remained in their minds as the land of their childhood; a period of their lives shared with their grandfather Sebastian, surrounded by the vineyards in which he worked as a "contractor vintner". The Agostino brothers promised themselves to come back to Mendoza, with the dream of building a winery that would honor their grandfather and where they could apply his teachings. So in the year 2003 they returned to Mendoza to make their dream come true. It is in Barrancas, Maipú, where a new chapter of their story begins, and where, day by day, they build their legacy: the wines of Finca Agostino.

Finca Agostino offers a personalised experience for those who want to come and visit the winery, with a complete wine tour that includes the vineyards and all the stages of the wine elaboration process, finishing with different options of wine tastings for each taste.
