We pride ourselves on being the change needed with food. So, anyone can get caught with their hand in our cookie Jar! The world is changing around food, with allergies and ethical food choices, for the love of cookies we need to change with it! We owe the humble simplicity of sharing a plate of cookies and a Cupa the right to be around for a long time to come.

Tezzi our founder, first created our cookies in her kitchen at home because it was getting harder and harder for her family to share a plate of food, one thing they could all enjoy safely together. Family, Friends & Food these equal memories and fond times for Tezzi and is enriched by her proud indigenous heritage. This is driving force behind Cooee Cookies and her passion for unity and inclusiveness.

Tezzi & Shane are Cooee Cookies, and their goal! is that NO ONE is left out..... You are not at a conference with nothing you can eat on the treat table, you will not be going without a treat, on that long flight somewhere and there is nothing in the mini bar goodies you can eat. Because at COOEE COOKIES we aim to make that change and it will feel like a hug from the inside....

Our Cookies.

TRIPLE CHOC is for diehard chocoholics, this cookie is like a crunchy explosion of serious chocolatey yumminess. It is made with the finest quality Plant-based chocolate, raw cacao & indulgent Dutch cocoa. It is a traditional crunchy cookie, that has various levels of chocolate intensity dancing in your mouth at one time. To be fair it should come with a warning label “Highly Addictive” There is no doubt if you love chocolate, this Cookie will have you at first bite and keep you coming back for more.

Chai Sticky Date if you are a chai lover then this cookie is going to steal your heart. This first to hit you is the wholesome aroma of the chai spices, then you bite into too crunchy on the outside, softer cake style in the middle with delicious chewy dates. We make our own chai tea from quality spices and soak the dates in it before rolling them through the cookie dough. It is like the dough gives it a big hug and it is baked fresh and packed by hand on the same day. There is a lot of love that goes into creating this cookie and you feel it with every bite.

White Choc & Pepita Seed this cookie is for the ultimate foodie, it is a quirky creative blend of guilty pleasure in quality creamy indulgent white chocolate, teamed up with I am eating something healthy with the nutty texture of the raw pepita seeds, it will have your taste buds saying OMG. This cookie is super crunchy, with smooth bursts of creamy white choc in every bite and a flavour profile that just works. This cookie is like that hidden gem restaurant you found that no one believes how good it is, to be honest; if cookies received Michelin awards, this one would be 3 stars.
