

You do not see things objectively. Your perception of yourself, others, and God is shaded. Shaded by your experiences. Shaded by your personality. Shaded by sin. But what if you could change that?

It's time to discover a new pair of shades to see through.

"Ask a room full of people to explain the gospel and you'll probably get a mixture of confused looks and maybe, kinda, somewhat accurate efforts to equate it to the idea of Good News and salvation. What you almost certainly won't get is an understanding of the gospel as a lens that shapes our worldview. And that's why this fantastic book is so important! In this book, Mike helps us recognize how a true understanding of the gospel really does shape everything about our lives."

Kurt Johnston
Pastor of NextGen Ministries | Saddleback Church

Mike Haynes is a youth ministry veteran and teaching pastor from Virginia. He's the founder of G Shades, a curriculum company dedicated to making gospel-focused resources for churches everywhere.

Kids Ministry Curriculum
Youth Ministry Curriculum and more at gshades.org

Life Through the Lens of the Gospel

Mike E. Haynes