

CREED

We are a Collective force.

We believe in one Aegros where we work together to get results.

We support one another to overcome any barriers We are not driven by politics and personal agendas. Our collective mission prevails, always.

We Act Responsibly

We believe in ethics and doing the right thing whether it be medical, legal, social and environmental.

We respect all and embrace diversity.

Your Employee Experience is at our core.

We believe in an environment where our teams can be inspired, educated and thrive through experiences and continuous learning.

We believe in an environment that you can be your best self both personally and professionally

We Deliver on our commitments.

We believe in personal accountability, we cherish people that place a high value on their 'say-do' ratio.

We believe in stretch goals where we do not shy away from being bold in our goal setting. This enables us to think differently and be creative
