

Styrling Strother is regarded as one of the leading strategy and tactical coaches in the world today. He is the Creator of Tennis MapPlay, the world's first Tennis Tracking App that maps and charts match play based on the rally length of a point. Styrling is a Best Selling Author of the book "7 On Court Strategies" and the Co-Founder of The Art of Winning Tennis promoting coach, player, and parent development. He is often sought after by coaches around the world to design the practice court in a way that revolutionizes a player's mindset to successfully negotiate the pressures of competitive match play.