WHO WE ARE

The 110 Institute is a premier private client firm specializing in risk management, crisis intervention, private intelligence, and operations security. We provide tailored services for affluent individuals, minimizing risks, streamlining operations, addressing crises with seasoned experts in security, intelligence, and emergency response. Our dedication to every client's unique needs ensures confidentiality, asset protection, and personalized solutions, enabling us to navigate diverse challenges with discretion and efficacy.

OUR SERVICES

OPERATIONAL SECURITY (OPSEC)

Safeguard your organization from cyber threats, legal issues, and reputation risks by prioritizing operational security. Our detailed assessment pinpoints vulnerabilities and recommends strategic OPSEC enhancements customized to bolster your defenses.

CUSTOM HARDWARE & SOFTWARE

Our expertise lies in creating custom encrypted communication platforms that protect every aspect of your digital ecosystem, including devices, technology, and software. When standard methods are insufficient, we can design and implement innovative solutions to tackle complex security challenges.

FINANCIAL SERVICES

While we do not provide banking and investment services, we excel as industry-leading experts in cryptocurrency and financial security practices. Our specialized knowledge ensures that your financial transactions are safeguarded with the highest level of security and confidentiality.

PRIVATE INTELLIGENCE

Our firm has intelligence capabilities that rival government agencies in our risk analysis work. We offer background information, geolocation data, social media monitoring, financial activity tracking, and more. Request a sample report if interested.

ERT & CRISIS MANAGEMENT

In times of crisis, uncertainty, and the need for reliable assistance, finding a trustworthy solution can be challenging. Fortunately, you now have access to a dependable and effective outlet to help resolve your critical issues.
