Getting Deals Done

CHRIS CLARK
ATTORNEY AT LAW
PDGA #16694

FOR DISC GOLF BUSINESSES, ATHLETES, AND INVESTORS, THE STAKES HAVE NEVER BEEN HIGHER.

The modern landscape for disc golf is complex, competitive, and interconnected. It is also evolving quickly; there's no margin for error. In an industry where deals have historically been done on a handshake, sound legal counsel is more important than it's ever been.

Our lawyers have decades of experience delivering positive outcomes for clients. Our attorneys and staff have impressive educational and professional experience – but, unlike traditional law firms, we embrace modern technology to create efficient workflows and processes. Today's leaders in disc golf should have access to high-quality legal guidance without subjecting themselves to the waste and excessive overhead that plagues traditional law firms.
