

Euphoria

(music & lyrics by frozenroom)

Lost in the shadows
As if I'd never find my way out
But then a light came through
I knew I'd find my way

A rush of life pumping through my veins
I break the chains this time

Euphoria
I am still alive
A flame that never dies
Euphoria

Euphoria
The world won't bring me down
I'm dancing through the pain
In my euphoria

It's a drug I can't resist no
A rush I can't deny no more
The thrill of chasing dreams untamed
Keeps me soaring high

I conquer skies and learn to fly
I spread my wings and touch the sky

Euphoria,
I'm still alive
A flame that never dies
Euphoria

Euphoria
The world won't bring/drag me down
I am dancing through the pain
In my euphoria

I'm on my way
Out of the darkness
Towards a brand-new day
Out of the silence
