

Community Visitor Scheme

Do you want to talk to a Community Visitor?

Community Visitors are independent appointed volunteers who visit mental health treatment centres each month to carry out visits and inspections of services and facilities, and to advocate for the rights of patients.

You can talk to a Community Visitor about any concerns you have or support you need with:

- The treatment centre
- Your medical treatment and care
- Your rights
- Advocacy and referral support

If you would like to talk to a Community Visitor please contact us on:

1800 606 302

Or ask your treatment team for assistance
