CSA Member Responsibilities* - Please Read ☺

As a CSA member, you share in the bounty as well as the potential risks that may occur on the farm. Being a member enables you to form a relationship with the farmer, the farm and the people that are involved with growing the crops. Becoming a member is a commitment. We ask that if you can't finish the season as members, then you are welcome to reassign your share to another family, but we cannot issue refunds.

If you are unable to pick up your box on delivery day, you must make alternate arrangements for your produce ahead of time.

You can have someone else pick up your box, ask the farm not to make your box that week, or ask your site coordinator to hold the box for a later pick-up. If you forget to pick up your share, it will be donated to a food pantry or a neighborhood family. READ ANY EMAILS THAT WE SEND OUT TO YOU! This is how we communicate with you with announcements, recipes, events and special offers!

Thank You and Welcome to the Farm!
