

Tuggs – Brand-able Beach Towel Clip

Tuggs is an amazing new marketing tool, which holds beach towels onto beach chairs while advertising your brand for years to come.

Beach, cruise line and pool guests all over the world are constantly annoyed by having their towels fall down their chairs, scrunch up behind them and blowing off into the sand or sea. Tuggs is a soft elastic bungee with two end clips that tensions the towel around your beach chair and holds it tight, even in the windiest conditions.

A better beach towel experience for everyone

- All guests can now relax completely in the sun without having to fiddle with and adjust their towels.
- Tuggs clips take only a few seconds to attach and tension the towel around a beach chair keeping it snugly in place all day long.
- Tuggs beauty, quality, usefulness and long-term durability make Tuggs a highly desirable product for all tourists.

Tuggs is a multi-purpose marketing tool

- Tuggs unique design is specifically made to maximize the space available for branding your company.
- Tuggs become a collectible souvenir item that your vacationers will take home and use for years to come creating long lasting brand awareness.

Great design makes Tuggs affordable, high-quality and durable

- Tuggs is manufactured in North America and provides a high-quality, long-lasting product.
- Tuggs is made with premium recyclable plastic and contains UV protection to maintain its amazing luster even in high heat, sun and saltwater conditions.

- We have built Tuggs for high-volume production, which makes Tuggs affordable for your company to provide to their guests. Every pair of Tuggs will re-enforce the power of your brand over and over, forever!

Many uses around the home

In addition to being an amazing beach towel clip people are finding all kinds of other uses for Tuggs.

- Hanging swimwear and towels to dry
- Clipping snack bags closed
- Holding down fly-away items

...the uses are endless

Gorgeous full-colour customization

The digital printing process that we use on Tuggs provides your company with the opportunity to advertise your brand on a total of 24 square inches of advertising space, spread over four clips. A left and a right clip provide space for two different design options, all included with no set-up fees.
