Inspiring people and businesses to exploit their full potential!!

The above “logo” I used on my mail, signature, letter head etc, I created this myself.

It was inspire from Accenture ... the triangle – Accenture .com

➔ they are the best cutting –edge consulting company

I like more the triangle but also like the intersection of two circles. I call the intersection of the two circles breakthrough or radical change and new discovery,

Business Breakthrough & Technology - the aha moment that change your game.
