OUR FIRM

Gugenheim Law is one of the only law firms in the State of North Carolina that is exclusively devoted to representing victims of nursing home and assisted living abuse and neglect. Gugenheim Law has recovered more than $25 million for victims and the families of victims of nursing home and assisted living abuse and neglect.

Gugenheim Law attorneys have over 45 years of combined legal experience. We are committed to representing the victims and families of victims of nursing home negligence and assisted living negligence. Gugenheim Law prosecutes nursing home and assisted living cases throughout the State of North Carolina. We have represented individuals in most counties in the State of North Carolina. We have achieved outstanding results for our clients, including some of the largest verdicts and settlements for nursing home and assisted living cases in the State of North Carolina.

As part of our efforts to fight for the victims of abuse and neglect, we have taken our cases to the North Carolina Court of Appeals and the North Carolina Supreme Court.

Nursing home and assisted living abuse and neglect takes many forms. Gugenheim Law has handled cases involving falls, unexplained fractures, pressure sores, malnutrition, dehydration, sexual assault, wandering, improper physician notification, medication errors, choking, bed rail strangulation, infection, bowel impaction, burns,

Stephen Gugenheim, the principal of Gugenheim Law, is the Chair of the Nursing Home Litigation Section for the North Carolina Advocates for Justice. He has argued numerous cases before the North Carolina Court of Appeals and the North Carolina Supreme Court that address topics relating to nursing home litigation. Stephen Gugenheim has argued more nursing home cases at the appellate level than any other lawyer in the State of North Carolina. Also, based on reported cases, Stephen Gugenheim and his law partner and wife, Julie Gugenheim, have tried to jury and arbitration verdict more nursing home cases than any other lawyers in the State of North Carolina.
