

Dream and Believe

Composed by Alan Salisbury
Arranged by Paul Busdiecker

Now grown-ups may think that they have the power to make things hap-pen their way, But kids of all ages no mat-ter how old, have a pow-er much grea-ter they say. You've got to be-lieve in Christ-mas, Be-lieve in the po-wer of love.

When you be-lieve, if you tru-ly be-lieve, good things will come from a-above. You've got to be-lieve in San-ta Be-lieve that rein-deer can fly.

When you be-lieve if you tru-ly be-lieve, Good things will come from on high. We all know Da - sher and Dan - cer and all, the team that pulls San - ta's sleigh. And 15  3  3  3  3  3  3

13  3  3  3  3  3  3

Ru - dolf of course, who keeps them on course, when the wea - ther is fog - gy and gray. But wait, there's an - other! It's Ru - dolf's young bro - ther who was asked to save Christ - mas one year.

17  3  3  3  3  3  3

19  3  3  3  3  3  3

Ran - ger's his name, but he knew no fame, 'cause he could - n't fly, this rein - deer!

21  3  3  3  3

Christ - mas is that spe - cial time of the year, when all your wish - es come true. But you have a pow - er through - out the whole year, a po - wer that lies with - in you. Young

23  3  3  3  3  3  3

25  3  3  3  3

Ran - ger looked up to his bro - ther, and one day he start - ed to dream. His

27

29

33

35

D G C G D G

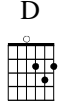

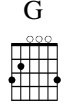

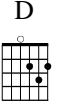

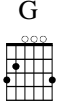

need - ed a ton - ic from far far a - away, or there'd be no Christ-mas at all! Could

37

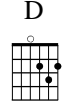

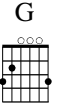

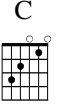

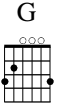

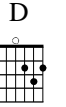

G D G C G D

Ran - ger him - self pull a sleigh with an elf, and re - turn be - fore Christ-mas eve? The

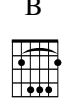

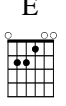

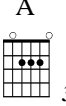

39

41  3  3  3  3

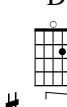

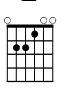

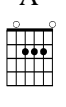

Dream, dream of what you want to be, Dream of the things that you'd do.

43  3  3  3  3  3

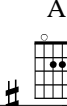

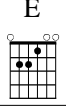

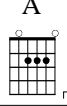

Dream of the pla - ces where you want to go, be - lieve and your dreams can come true!

45  3  3  3

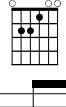

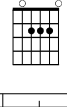

Can come true! Be - lieve in your own spe - cial

47  3  3  3

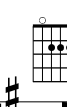

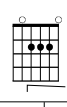

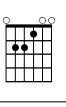

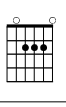

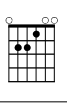

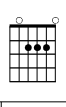

po - wer, to move and to change and to win. When you be - lieve, if you

49  3  3  3

tru - ly be - lieve, good things will come from with - in. Re - mem - ber the les - son of

51  3  3  3

Ran - ger, who learned it from San - ta's wise elf: "You can a - com - plish what -

53  3  3  3  3  3  3

ev - er you dream, if you just be - lieve in your - self!" If you just be - lieve in your self!