Meet Joanna and Robert Szulimowski

It's about caring, not just cleaning.

Having personally experienced the struggles of finding quality maid service for our home, we want to make it simpler for families in the Halton area. Our goal is to provide caring, consistent and reliable house cleaning to every customer we serve.

We pride ourselves on delivering the best possible customer experience in the region and providing outstanding healthy home cleaning to this important and rapidly growing community.

We are passionate about making a difference in the community and having Maid Simple become synonymous with reliable and dependable housekeeping services. With local focus and attention to quality and service we believe the families in the Halton region including Oakville, Burlington and Milton can be confident they are receiving the best and most reliable services in the region.

We are proud to serve the communities of Oakville, Burlington and Milton.
