

CODERITE

It's not always as simple as choosing the right codes for each patient encounter. More importantly, you need to use the best codes that can correctly balance revenue optimization with steadfast compliance.

Stop the guesswork, and start increasing your revenue with our CodeRite review service.

With CodeRite, a certified coding specialist will personally review each and every claim to make sure you're getting the maximum reimbursement for every patient encounter.

Most coding reviews are returned within 24 hours and results are available in the real-time reporting system, or delivered securely into your current practice management system.

Seamless. Designed to fit your workflow. Personal attention that will fully optimize your reimbursement process.
