

Financial Alliance - Client Engagement Event - 2016

Seminar Topic & Brief:

Advancing your Career. Protecting your Income.

How the mid-career executive can bring them to the table, and increase his market value.

China's slowdown. Oil sector bust. Weaken Singapore economy, and unforeseen risks. How do you keep yourself relevant to your company & the current job market.

Serge Shine, MD of Spring Professional will share with us, the latest job market trends, salary scale and how to enhance your employability so that you thrive regardless of the economic climate and the employment market.

Even with the most impressive CV you can build, means nothing when physical or mental calamity affects us.

Shawn Tan, the Head of Business Development, Aviva Ltd, will touch on how you can continue to preserve your income, in the event of an accident or illnesses that prevents you from working or pursue the career you have built.

Seminar Speaker 1:

Experience. Expertise. Excellence.

How the mid-career executive can bring them to the table, and increase his market value.

Serge Shine has been the Managing Director of Spring Professional since 2012, where he captains the operations of Spring Professionals across Asia (ex-Japan).

Highly endorsed for his vast knowledge in recruitment and human resources, Serge has been extremely successful in launching market initiatives, most notably, Michael Page's Banking and Financial Services in Switzerland in 2006, the Sales & Marketing, HR divisions in Singapore in 2010 as well as its technical disciplines in 2011.

Seminar Speaker 2:

Ideal Income by Aviva

How to have a guaranteed flow of income, even when you can't work.

Shawn first joined the financial service industry as an Insurance advisor. He subsequently switched to a corporate role where he excelled and moved up the ranks quickly. Over the years, he has held roles spanning from Training and Business Development, prior to joining AVIVA, he was with British insurer Prudential as the Business Development Director.
