Our commitment to the environment

ISO 14001 - The standard published by the International Standards Organisation specifying the requirements of an environmental management system.

Eco Bleaching Process - Products that are bleached using chemicals other than chlorine gas. Eco-bleaching methods include Elemental Chlorine Free (ECF), Totally Chlorine Free (TCF), Process Chlorine Free (PCF) or products that are not bleached at all.

Environmental Management System (EMS) - A business procedure that ensures that environmental matters are addressed through a documented system.

Forest Management - These papers are totally derived from resources which are managed to ensure their renewability for generations to come.

make the most of our city!

Now that the cold weather has well and truly settled in, there is no need to go into hibernation! Take advantage of the exciting array of cultural activities right here in our own backyard of Wagga Wagga to keep your spirits high this winter.

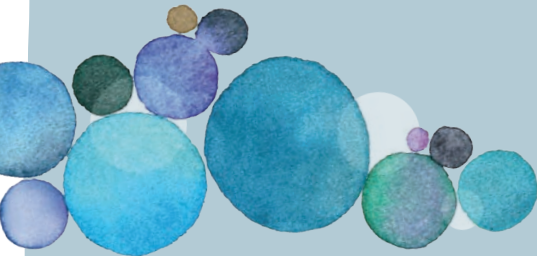

Make sure you wish the Wagga Wagga Civic Theatre a Happy 50th Birthday this June with many exciting events to mark the occasion. Also during June we celebrate Refugee Week and recognise the contribution our new citizens make to our city. NAIDOC is a celebration of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cultures, with many activities from 7 – 14 July. There are plenty of activities for the July school holidays in our city from film festivals to manga classes.

Our cultural heritage and diversity is something to be celebrated and this winter gives residents and visitors to Wagga Wagga alike many opportunities to do so.

REFUGEE WEEK 2013 16-22 JUNE

Refugee Week has been celebrated in Australia since 1986. This year's theme is Restoring Hope – which reminds us all that, while a refugee's journey begins with danger, it also begins with hope.

Refugee Week is a unique opportunity for the local community to come together to experience the City of Wagga Wagga's rich, vibrant and culturally diverse refugee communities. At this year's community celebrations there will be plenty of free activities for all ages – including cultural performances, stalls and children's activities plus a free community BBQ from 12.30pm.

G

Fusing classical ballet with explosive choreography, the dancers embody the central themes of hysteria, vulnerability, desire, gender, death and the afterlife. Their powerful athleticism is accompanied by a haunting electronic musical score that drives the work forward, and a panorama of LED screens to reconfigure the original ballet, its story and themes.
