Introduction

(The biggest key is to make people aware that I was a Licensed Veterinarian Technician from Nashville, Tn. That is a huge "selling" point when hiring someone to care for your pets)

Instead of feeling guilty when you must leave your pet for long work days, travel or appointments you can feel good knowing that you have provided your pet with a best friend, Alamo Heights Pet Club.

Alamo Heights Pet Club provides your pet with one on one attention, plenty of play time and exercise and lots and lots of love until your return.

I know pets do better and have less stress when they remain in their own homes where the sites, sounds and smells are familiar. They feel safe and comfortable. While you are away there is no need to expose your pet to other pets and possible illness associated with kennels.

My pet sitting visits eliminate separation anxiety, stress and the boredom that may lead to destructive behavior.
