Presentation

The Conference for Passionate Developers

Devoxx France, 5th edition, is the most important event for developers. During 3 days, Devoxx France offers over 220 presentations, hands on labs, as well as multiple opportunities to meet a very active developer's community around several topics: Java, alternative JVM languages, Web, Architecture, Cloud Computing...

Each attendee can choose between several topics and create its own conference.

Prestigious keynotes enlight Thursday and Friday morning. The "Meet & Greet" on Thursday evenings offers several gathering events such as BOFs or Seed Networking.

Meet the Developers

Juniors, Students or experts, all enthusiasts gather at Devovx France. During three days, the conference is the meeting point of experts as well as the French Java User Groups (JUG).

Exchange and share

In between conferences, at lunch breaks or during evening events, you'll have several opportunities to discuss and share.

Invite your employees

Share your expertise while offering your employees a unique opportunity to learn the latest greatest technologies.

Strengthen your image

Devovx France allows you to invite your customers to participate in an event where the image of your company and your employees is valuable.

Independently

The conference content is decided by a committee of experts not including organizers.

Organizing Team

Devoxx France is organized by three developers who started the Paris JUG, grouped within the Quantixx company responsible for organizing the event.

Devoxx France is a franchise of Devoxx, which is held in Belgium in November.

Antonio Goncalves

Independent since 2006, Antonio is the founder of the Paris JUG. Java Champion, Antonio is the author of several reference books in French and English on Java EE. He is a blogger and internationally renowned speaker.

Zouheir Cadi

Independent since 2011, Zouheir was the secretary of the Paris JUG for 6 years. He teaches at the National School of Telecommunications and speaks regularly.

Nicolas Martignole

CTO of CaptainDash, author of the blog "the Touilleur Express", independent for more than 7 years, he is also a speaker who has made more than 30 conferences in Europe and Canada.

Novelty 2016

2015 was the first edition at the Palais des Congrès. after this success (all seats were sold six weeks prior the conference) we reviewed the exhibition floor. So for 2016 we have booked the entire exhibition hall, which will give attendees and exhibitors more space and better reception conditions.

A new 2000m² exhibition hall accommodates the 36 exhibitors. The allocation of booths is done once the first invoice has been paid, the contract and terms and condition signed. The final exhibition hall map will be announced after validation by the Security Committee of the Palais des Congrès.

Map provided for information purpose without any contractual value. Contact us for more information on locations and options (TV, booth, decorations, posters, etc.)
