

Dilworth Community Garden

Jubilee! The Garden is One Year Old!

By Julie Nofsinger

Stroll past the lush and bountiful garden under the power lines in the shadow of the Kenilworth substation and you'll wonder how it is possible that it's been just one year since that patch of vacant land became our Dilworth Community Garden (DCG)!

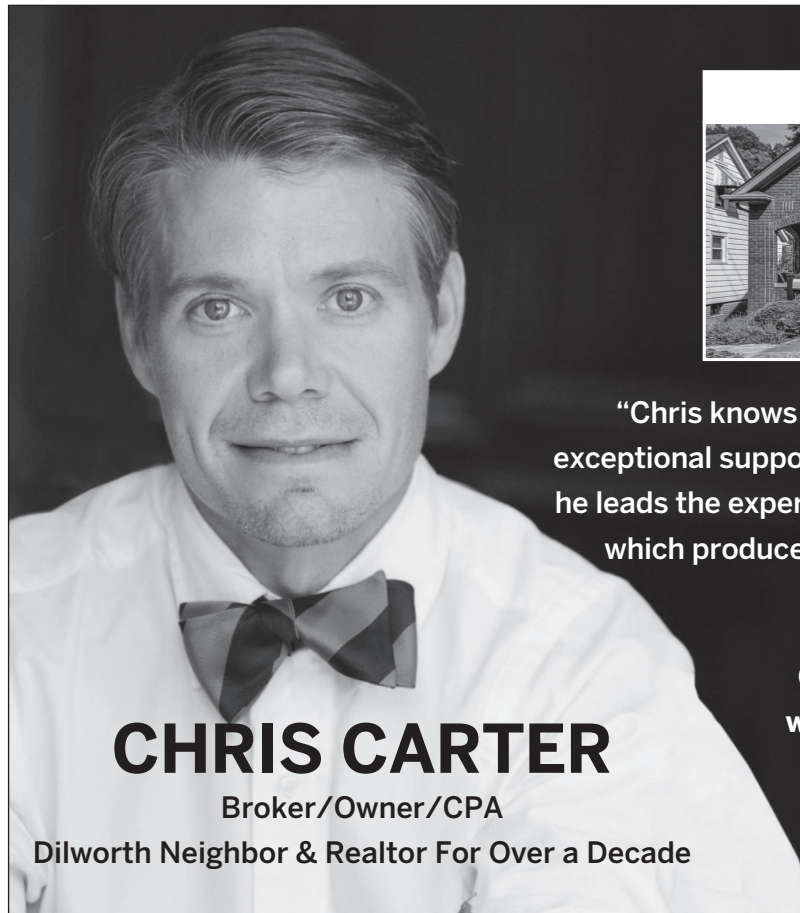

One year under our belt, yet novice and expert gardeners alike have cultivated and harvested countless crops of tomatoes, squash, cucumbers and peas.

Julie Nofsinger

Our one year anniversary was clearly cause for celebration, and celebrate we did! On June 16, the first annual DCG Birthday Bash was open to the entire community to tour, toast and yes, even taste the DCG.

If you joined us, you rocked out to the bluesy-jazzy-folksy Americana tunes of The Mike Strauss Band, munched on Brixx Pizza and sipped some tasty brews courtesy of Olde Mecklenburg Brewery. The free party was our gift back to all of you for helping us make our

CHRIS CARTER

Broker/Owner/CPA

Dilworth Neighbor & Realtor For Over a Decade

Under Contract 1 Day

Dilworth Neighborhood

"Chris knows Charlotte real estate like no other, provides exceptional support and guidance to his clients. More importantly, he leads the experience with urgency, integrity and southern class which produces incredible results!" Erin Wilk, Buyer & Seller

Get the confidence you need when buying or selling a home.

chris@cacartergroup.com

704-619-8594

CarterGroupRealtors.com

