

PROOF INVOICE # 19218

PLEASE READ!

The client is responsible for proof reading all of the following pages.

Once this proof has been approved RockDesign will accept no financial responsibility for any typos or errors whether provided by the client or prepared by our designers.

* Pantone codes are for reference only.

It is important to print the proof with “no scaling” in order to get an accurate representation of the font size. Please confirm the font size is readable.

RockDesign will not be liable for the design related issues after this proof has been confirmed by our customers. Thank you.

Please proof read ALL pages of the proof and check that the following is correct:

- ☐ contact information (names, job titles, emails, addresses, phone numbers, fax numbers, cell phone numbers)
- ☐ business information (company name, logos, slogans, mission statements, quotes)
- ☐ design information (print features, pantone colour codes*, order quantities)
- ☐ billing address
- ☐ shipping address

Please note the following:

- Any cards that use our plate stamping techniques (ie. foil stamping, debossing, letterpress) may leave some marks on the other side of the card.
- Stamping will have a slight alignment shift. It will not strike on the exact spot with 100% accuracy

I have read and agree to the terms listed on this page:

☐

I CONFIRM THIS PROOF AND AGREE TO THE FOLLOWING:

- ☐ 1. This proof is a final mutual agreement between RockDesign and the client.
- ☐ 2. Once this proof has been approved there will be no adjustments made to the design. The printed design will be solely based on the most recent approved proof. The finishings, quantity, cardstock, text and layout of the card will be governed by the proof.
- ☐ 3. RockDesign is not liable for mistakes such as typos, alignment issues, or layout issues once this proof has been confirmed by the client. RockDesign will not be held liable for any complaints in regards to font sizing. We recommend printing this proof with "no scaling" in order to view the actual font size as the font size will appear different if it is printed using the "fit to page" setting.
- ☐ 4. The digital proof will NOT look identical to the actual printed cards. The digital proof is intended to demonstrate the layout, content and specifications and is not meant for colour comparisons. Do not approve confirm the proof by viewing it on a tablet or smartphone due to the way the colours may appear. * What you see on the computer screen will always be slightly different than what is being printed. Different computer monitors will give out different colour outputs.
- ☐ 5. RockDesign does not issue refunds or reprints due to dissatisfaction with paper or finishing properties. We highly recommend clients purchase our sample pack prior to ordering which is readily available on our website. Please visit <http://www.rockdesign.com/sample-packs.html>.
- ☐ 6. Alignment may vary up to and including 2mm. This variation is not considered an error and is not eligible for a reprint.
- ☐ 7. RockDesign uses Pantone color codes for reference only. We do not print with Pantone colors but do our best to get as close to the Pantone code as possible. To ensure our colour printing is as accurate as possible please provide either an uncoated or coated Pantone code. Please note that we cannot use Pantone code as reference for our plastic or classic business cards.
- ☐ 8. Reprints are only offered to orders with issues that would not reoccur if printed again using the same conditions or if the card was not printed according to the proof.
- ☐ 9. For full terms and policy please visit <http://www.rockdesign.com/terms>.
- ☐ 10. All proof approvals must be submitted via email accompanied by a signed and scanned copy of our terms, conditions and warnings. In the absence of a scanner a photograph of the signed document will suffice)
- ☐ 11. RockDesign holds the right to photograph and showcase completed projects/products on our website, unless otherwise requested against by the client. Photographs will not show any contact information. Please let RockDesign know in writing if you do not agree to this term.
- ☐ 12. RockDesign accepts no responsibility for spelling errors made regardless of the spelling provided by client. It is the clients responsibility to proof read the proof to ensure all information has been accurately replicated.

Thank you for your understanding.

*Please note that all warnings are unavoidable issues that arise when using high-end printing processes and plate stamping. The intention of these warnings is to maintain open and honest operation while creating reasonable expectations. The extent of these issues varies by design so please contact orders@rockdesign.com if you have any concerns.
