The knee pain experts at Reflex are ready to help

Reflex Knee Clinic in Portland, Oregon specializes in clinically-proven, non-surgical treatments for recurrent and chronic knee pain.

Our physicians leverage the most sophisticated diagnostic tools and treatment modalities available to help relieve pain, and get you back to life.

WHO WE SERVE

Reflex treatments can help improve knee function — in active individuals, as well as patients with aging knees.

Whether you lead an active lifestyle or are looking to lead one again, our holistic approach to knee health can empower you to live life to the fullest.

"I can now do things that I never thought I would do again without pain like running, weight training and playing sports with my kids."
