Leah Shafer Medical Aesthetician & Owner
As a teenager, I had cystic acne so bad that I would ditch school to swim in the ocean because the salt water seemed to dry out and heal my skin. I was on such a mission to clear my skin that I spent my weekly allowance on skin care products I saw on TV. Then, I memorized every ingredient. I was so intrigued by the beauty industry that, by 19, I began a career as a make up artist for Lancome, Mac, Bobby Brown, Prescriptives, and Stila. By 23, I was a skincare consultant for the Georgette Klinger Salons in Beverly Hills and Orange County California. I was honored to learn from the world's most demanding clients.

I Understand Why Your Skin Matters
Admit it. We take more pictures of ourselves than ever...and then try to "fix" our blemishes with photo filters. I understand your frustrations. Some of you know I've had a parallel career as a professional singer who does network TV appearances; where the HD cameras get extreme close ups...Yikes!). I also sing the National Anthem at NFL, NBA, and MLB games, where their 200 foot-wide JumboTron screens constantly remind me that skin imperfections are magnified. I will help get your skin more naturally beautiful so you can use less photo filters ;-)
