We need an owl standing to the right of the the Z either leaning on it.
The owl has to be wearing a helmet to appeal to the industrial environment. Please make your own design with matching colors.

This owl is one example but it is too cute.. We need it to be wearing a helmet to show that it is targeted at field technicians. We need a more serious owl that is suited for industrial setting. Need the whole body as well.

The idea is the logo + owl will be the branding and will be blown up on a 10 x 8 ft banner for display.

Some examples but please use your own imagination
