

General Information – Flights

1. Airlines: The Tour Group will be flying on a major International Carrier, or US Carrier, or a combination thereof.
2. Frequent Flyer Information: If you have frequent flyer numbers with any of the airlines or airline alliances, you will be able to put your numbers in and accrue miles and perhaps elite qualification mileage depending upon the fare class obtained.
3. Class of Service: The Tour Price Quite will for flying in economy class. If you want to fly business or first class, let the Trip Leader know in order to obtain an airfare quote from our flight travel provider.
4. Group Travel: Group will be flying together unless someone has a special need or is coming from a different place in the US or elsewhere.
5. Frequent Flyer Award Travel: Some travelers may have award miles and are wondering about using them.
 - a. It is very difficult to match mileage travel with group travel.
 - b. Therefore, Frequent Flyer Award Travel is not allowable on a trip.
6. Seating Together: We will make every attempt to make sure that the group is sitting near each other, and that you will be seated with your spouse, which I believe will happen since we are booking far in advance.
7. Seating Preference: You will be asked for your seating preference and we will make every effort to get you your desired seat. In some cases, travel charges could be incurred if the traveler seeks a specific seat.
8. Routing: There are no nonstop flights to Tel Aviv from Denver. Therefore, we will be routing through one of the major hub cities such as New York, Chicago, London or Frankfurt for our trip.
