

INTERNATIONAL RESCUE INSTRUCTORS ASSOCIATION

International Rescue Instructors Association (IRIA)

1. The “primary purpose” of this not-for-profit Corporation, known as the International Rescue Instructors Association (IRIA) is:
 - a) to provide its membership with professional education based on simple, unbiased, evidence based, Standards and guidelines for rescue and safety training programs and equipment applications;
 - b) this is based on the IRIA ‘Risk Management Matrix’ (RMM);
 - c) to support, protect and defend its membership worldwide;
 - d) The “primary responsibility” of this Corporation is to develop and implement an economic and financial model to guarantee the financial strength and successful operation of the Corporation, so it can forever meet its’ “primary purpose”;
 - e) The Corporation is to build, maintain, develop, implement, support and defend its Certification, Accreditation and Licensing Standards, Guidelines and Protocols for both rescue and safety training and equipment levels in swiftwater, helicopter, boat and ice environments; and
 - f) The Corporation will protect its Trademarks™, Copyrights©, Registered Trademark Symbol®, Private Intellectual Property and Proprietary Information conveyed unto it, for the exclusive use by the Corporation and its membership.

Below a draft logo design:

IRIA is interested in having the artwork to the left of the writing, updated, simple, unique and reflect the Association’s propose as stated above.

Below a current IRIA logo

