WELCOME TO GEMS

Did you know there's one number one thing that is stopping you from creating everything you'd truly like to have in your life? It's the word "can't".

How do you being to change of this way of thinking? You ask a question! Ask yourself: What can I do? What can I do to create a greater future for yourself? What can I do? Not "I can't," because if you think you can't and your point of view creates your reality, then guess what? You can't.

CHANGING YOUR LIMITING POINTS OF VIEW

There's this really great tool in Access Consciousness and it's called "Destroy and un-create your point of view." If you were able to destroy and un-create your point of view, if you were able to go the point of the creation where you decided that point of view and where you decided it would limit you, and if you were to actually turn the polarity, turn the energetics, turn the magnetics of that point of view -- because all words, all molecules have energy; we know this from science and quantum physics -- if you were to turn those, then the sticky influence of this thought-feeling emotion that has you so stuck, would actually fall off. Just like the magnetic imprint. It would fall off your body. It would fall off your being and you would no longer be stuck.

The magic wand for destroying and uncreating a limiting point of view is the clearing statement and it's so funny, and so crazy, and it doesn't matter if you understand it all. If you decide you would like to change and destroy your point of view, then you can just say "POC and POD" or -- Right and wrong, good and bad, POC and POD, all 9, Shorts, Boys & Beyonds®. You don't have to know what you means. You don't have to know anything about it. And it works.

Enjoy clearing your limiting points of view!
