

Concert Flyer Copy/Specs:

Quintessence Choral Artists of the Southwest [use logo]

presents

Alzheimer's Stories

by Robert Cohen

Quintessence; Choral Artists of the Southwest present a concert of works from their 6th Annual Summer Choral Festival, including the New Mexico Premiere of Robert Cohen's "Alzheimer's Stories," Jocelyn Hagen and Dessa's "Controlled Burn" and a special set of pieces by the 2018 Choral Scholars.

This concert is presented in partnership with Alzheimer's Association New Mexico Chapter. Hear the festival chorus over 100 voices perform these works with a live professional orchestra after a week of workshops and rehearsals.

featuring

Ingela Onstad, soprano
Michael Hix baritone

Sunday, July 29, 2018
3:00pm

National Hispanic Cultural Center
Bank of America Theater
1701 4th St SW, Albuquerque, NM 87102

Join us for a pre-concert panel discussion at 2pm, featuring composer Robert Cohen.

Tickets are $10 ($5 for students)
at nhccnm.org

[include logos for KHFM and Alzheimers' Association at bottom]
[logo for 2018 Q Summer Festival can be used as well]