Important: We are NOT going to have V-Neck like in my basic shirt, but round neck. So that's why I preselected in the link above already round-neck format.

Select this to the left to get the first pattern

I highlighted all parts in different colours so you can see the parts.

After that, I selected another pattern, and cut out the part I wanted to have and put it just in paint on top of the one before, to combine them.

And there you go, after some colour adjustments and fine tuning.
