TELL ME MORE ABOUT KATHY TRACEY AND ALYSON GARRIDO, THE COURSE FACILITATORS.

Kathy trained with a number of Systemic Constellations Practitioners in the UK and Europe, and has been practising internationally since 2015. Over the past 5 years she has studied and practiced with well-respected Organisational Systemic Constellators John Whittington, Klaus Horn, & Ty Francis, as well co-facilitating with a group of 18 Mastery level practitioners in London. Kathy uses constellation methodology in coach supervision as well as in leadership & team coaching with a range of international clients.

Alyson has been introduced to constellation work and the power of the somatic experience by her work with Street Wisdom and by being an early adopter of systemic mapping in coaching in New Zealand. She is working alongside Kathy bringing her energy and engagement skills to the course, as well as her developing expertise in mapping and constellations methodology. She is an experienced international Career Coach, and also facilitates learning and development workshops in both the public and private sectors.
