

It is too often that we think of health and wellness in a REACTIVE sense. We get sick, we go to the doctor. We develop aches and pains, and immediately reach for medication.

VG Wellness looks to change that. We believe that one should take a PROACTIVE and PREVENTATIVE approach to health by leading an active healthy lifestyle supplemented with complete nutrition.

VG7

VG7 is our superfood powered supplement. Each of the 7 whole food ingredients of VG7 can be considered superfoods by themselves, but together these fruits and vegetables are even stronger.

We designed VG7 to give our bodies a little extra support, filling the nutritional holes in our diets. It offers the nutrition of a multivitamin and a healthy dose of fiber in a 100% natural capsule. VG7 will allow you to nourish your body with a unique blend of seven of nature's most nutritious botanicals.*

From South East Asia to Africa, Moringa has been used to heal and sustain many cultures and peoples. It's high vitamin and mineral profile outranks the acai berry, goji berry, broccoli, and even green tea; making it one of the most nutritious superfoods available.
