

Body Temperature Detection Camera

Body Temperature Detection System

Helping the early detection of infectious disease

Non-contact temperature measuring and screening systems, with facial recognition & real time body temperature detection. Providing alerts directly to a mobile device for rapid response to safeguard your commercial environment.

Call 1300 722 701 for a FREE quote or email sales@excelcom.com.au

Key Features

Face recognition and temperature measurement (of multiple moving and static subjects).

Real-time monitoring and temperature warning system.

Linked to Mobile App (real-time warnings).

Body temperature measurement system

Excelcom is an industry leader in data, security, internet and CCTV solutions. Through the supply and installation of leading body temperature camera technology in your commercial premises, companies can do their bit in helping the early detection of infectious disease, taking full control of your environment. These cameras are specifically designed to be unattended temperature measuring and screening systems, with facial recognition & real time body temperature detection. They provide alerts to a mobile device that can be acted upon quickly to safeguard your commercial environment. Early detection can assist in protection of your premises, staff and customers.

Typical application

Hotel

Airport

Shopping Centre

Hospital

Station

Companies we work with

Call 1300 722 701 for a FREE quote or email sales@excelcom.com.au