

This is just an inspiration idea of the style of website graphics and branding imagery that we are working on. This might give you a concept to make the design and font have a little more “movement” without looking so corporate.

These are just inspiration ideas for using icons to represent the digital element of the design. Since this will be a network for bloggers, influencers, etc. maybe use a small hint of a chat box, wifi icon, etc....

