Limitless Methods to Art Making.*

o I first seek to understand the subject matter I wish to express and who I am addressing, then I select the medium that will best convey it. It is easier to say I work in all materials than to make a list of the art I have created. o

Engaging Art

Public Art & Consulting

Using Art to Transform Communities and Form Human Connections

Artist led public art and design agency based in Northwest Indiana. We design and produce engaging and artful projects and programs for people to connect and create within their community. We are guided by a passionate belief in the power of art to create inspiring personal experiences that transform communities and inspire stewardship.

"As a artist we have the opportunity to be global communicators"

Exploring Life Through Art

My art reflects my diverse background and inquisitiveness to explore the human experience. My subjects are broad. They are inspired by life, psychology and the environment. It is easier to say everything. My art illuminates my personal journey of enlightenment and bewilderment of being alive.
