

Frank Sorrentino III

Frank Sorrentino III is Chairman and CEO of North Jersey Community Bank (NJCB), the fastest growing bank in New Jersey history with seven branches in Englewood Cliffs, Fort Lee, Cresskill, Hackensack, West New York and Ridgewood. The bank was founded by Mr. Sorrentino and other Bergen County civic and business leaders to serve local residents and businesses by providing the highest level of personalized community banking services to Northern New Jersey.

As Chairman and CEO of North Jersey Community Bank, Mr. Sorrentino is responsible for the bank's business development plan, serves as the bank's liaison to the community, sits on the bank's loan committee and serves as the bank's spokesperson. Mr. Sorrentino has been instrumental in developing the bank's branch and expansion strategy and oversees all marketing activities.

NJCB's board of directors, shareholders, employees and loyal customer base have all contributed to its unprecedented growth. Since opening its first branch in January 2005, NJCB has grown to more than $500 million in assets.

North Jersey Community Bank was recently named in the Top 10 on NJBIZ's 50 Fastest Growing Companies list and was a finalist for the publication's Emerging Business of the Year award.

In addition, NJCB was also a recipient of the Forbes® Enterprise Awards--the most esteemed and sought after small-business awards in the United States. The Forbes® Enterprise Awards honor the visionary practices and exemplary achievements of a select few small businesses.

Mr. Sorrentino is a frequent commentator on CNBC, Bloomberg TV & Radio, and Fox Business News discussing Community Banking issues.

Previously, Mr. Sorrentino was president of FSS Construction, Inc. a family owned third generation construction business that was founded in 1979. FSS is a building, construction management and development firm based in Englewood Cliffs, New Jersey that specializes in custom built luxury residential homes specially built for clients as well as for general sale.

Mr. Sorrentino received his bachelor's degree in science in Construction Engineering Technology from Farleigh Dickinson University in 1987. He was named "Builder of the Year" in 1995 by the Builders Association of Northern New Jersey and was also awarded the Founders Medal from Bergen Catholic High School in 2005.
