

Silver Spring International LLC

Silver Spring International Advisory

Silver Spring International is a global advisor with significant expertise in a broad range of operations. Our family thoroughbred racing heritage dates back to the early 1960's, and today Silver Spring International Advisory Services provides thoughtful, custom-tailored solutions that help drive their clients' strategic and financial goals. With our ability to handle complex and diverse situations, we bring to the table deep experience across various market cycles, vast intellectual capital, unconventional thinking and a problem-solving approach. These qualities, plus the resources of our global network and an unwavering commitment to putting clients' interests first, make Silver Spring International a valued long-term strategic partner for our clients.

Independence

Our independent status means that nothing stands in the way of serving our clients' interests.

Intellectual Capital

Silver Spring International's team devote themselves to personally serving clients' needs. They have a high level of experience in world-class thoroughbred racing. This deep pool of intellectual capital gives us exceptional insight into our clients' needs, and an intuitive grasp of the right strategic solutions and operational management.

Innovation

Silver Spring International delivers innovative solutions to our clients' most challenging and complex needs. The broad experience and unconventional wisdom of our team allow us to develop solutions – such as creative deal structures and management – that “get the job done” for clients.

Investor-Focus

Silver Spring International's experience as a global investor gives us the ability to see advisory assignments from both a client's and an owner's point of view, providing a distinctive perspective on value creation.

International Scope

The ability to tap into Silver Spring International's global network of trainers, facilities and other services gives us – and our clients – access to unsurpassed resources and relationships around the world.
