Who We Are

World Affairs Council of Connecticut is a non-profit, non-partisan international affairs organization that promotes public awareness and dialogue on global issues. Founded in 1924, the Council is part of the World Affairs Council's of America, the largest international affairs non-profit in the United States.

What We Do

The World Affairs Council of Connecticut hosts programs and discussions on critical global issues. The Council also works with Connecticut schools to provide programs for students and educators that increase awareness of our world and the challenges facing us as global citizens.

Join Us

Your membership and support helps the World Affairs Council of Connecticut provide programs and operate as a vital hub for bringing people together in conversation about the world we live in. Add your voice to the discussion.

For Global Citizens: Powerful Connections to World Leaders, Issues, and Events

Our Programs

Global Issue Discussions

Throughout the year, the Council holds programs on foreign policy when key diplomats, government officials, journalists, and economists address Council members and guests about urgent global issues.

Hot Issue Happy Hours

The Council holds a series of Hot Issue Happy Hour programs during the year which respond to critical global events as they unfold.

Luminary Award

The Luminary Award is the Council's annual signature event, created to honor an individual or organization from Connecticut who has profoundly impacted global affairs with an emphasis on the overall betterment of the world.

Model United Nations

Each year the Council hosts a Model United Nations program. Thousands of Connecticut students participate in this international simulation program which allows them to represent countries, tackle contemporary global issues, and travel to the United Nations to meet diplomats.
