Supported Apartment Program Description

Sample Supports Supported Apartment program focuses on independence while supporting clients in an independent living setting. The Supported Apartment program is available for clients through the DD Medicaid waiver through Personal Care Alternative (PCA) classification. This model is incredibly beneficial for higher functioning clients who may need a non-traditional residential option. We focus our program for clients that need more independence and opportunities to improve their current skill set. This program is a different approach to support clients who want to live independently but need extra support to do so responsibly
