A SMART and SIMPLE tool to manage communications online

Signmee is an easy-to-use online communication and consent management system that allows schools to more efficiently and effectively communicate with parents. Signmee replaces traditional ways of sending parents permission slips, notifications, newsletters and other school communications; and gives schools the power to collect information, payments and consent.

- Remove administration from classroom.
- Collect parent consent more efficiently.
- Allow teachers to view and monitor responses from parents in real-time.
- Put an end to the need to print, staple, cut, fold, insert, mail, duplicate, file and record paper permission forms.
- Send notification alert reminders to parents.
