Jewellery replacement
from AXA Home Insurance

“If jewellery you love is stolen and can't be replaced, we can have a copy made.”

Chris Whiteley / Personal Claims Handler

When you're burgled, it's not just a violation of your home – it can also mean the loss of things you really treasure. It's our job at AXA Home Insurance to help you through what can be a horrible time. And, more importantly, replace the things you've lost.

For customers like Paul and Suzie, that can mean using our jewellery replacement service. We can work with our experts – and you – to make copies of jewellery that can't be replaced any other way. It's a little thing, but it can mean a lot.
