Help from professionals

Let professionals who know the travel industries handle all yours booking requests. Great result with less work, our professional team will answer all you inquiries, while you spend time with friends, family and enjoy your own holiday.

Access Scandinavians

Our roots are from Norway, and we have expertise with the Scandinavian market and can help you get tenants from these very travel friendly demographics.

Broad exposure

We have been in the market for several years and are promoting your property through the necessary and right channels.

Trust & Safety

You are still in control of your property. We have the tools to help you accept a booking only if you're 100% comfortable.

No Traveler fees

Unlike many other vacation rental booking sites, travelers can book vacation rentals without paying any fees to us, maybe one of the reason we have so many returning costumers.

Payments by Jouell

Guests are always careful when it comes to payment. Everybody can feel safe through secure payment with Jouell. We are responsible for you getting paid.

Online Booking

We simplify the booking process by allowing tenants to send online reservations request, which gives you a 24-hour period to accept or decline their reservation.

Easy-to-Use Tools

Get access too a very well developed reservation and management tool that helps you keep track of bookings.

Unlimited inquiries

When you are renting out your property you need inquiries, therefore we have no fees on inquiries for your property.

Unlimited photos

A picture says more then 1000 words, therefore we inspire you too upload as many pictures as possible.

Online calendar

Tenants like to know when your property is available straight away, and we let them know that. At the same time you can easily manage your availability.

Map and location

Tenants are always wondering where your property is located. Show them through our map and let them know where nearby attractions are.

Getting impressed now, wait to you see our low prices...

How do you want to list your property?

I was not able to add this in the same columns the easy way ☺)

(Under each of the listing options add a button for choosing a new house with that listing option.)

(Under here again add a box that lists the houses and listing types the costumers have chosen.)

When no properties have been chosen the box contains the text “You have not chosen to list any property with us, add a property by clicking here... (when they click here a modal window appears where they choose their listing option)

If you want us to contact you too answer any question click here... (When they click here a modal window appears with a form with the necessary information)

When a property is added it lists the number of properties and type of listing, under them it stands complete order or add another property, do they click on another property the same model window as described over here appears.)

(When they complete their order a model window with an ordering form appears, the form contains the same information as the form to day at <https://www.ferieboliger.no/sales>, add both the part from “Costumer details” and “Terms”. When they confirm the order a model window that thanks them for the order should appear)

You now know that you are going to list your property, but are uncertain which listing option is right for you? Click here to calculate what’s most profitable for you...

When they click here a calculation tool similar to the one you find here (<http://www.homeaway.com/info/lyp> (click on “Booking Comparison Calculator”))

Which listing option should you choose?

(Use the same parameters as HomeAway.com are using)

If you want personal guidelines we are more then willing to call you, type in your name and number here and someone will contact you as soon as possible

(Put inn a form here where the visitors can lave the necessary information, first name, last name, e-mail address, phone number and when to be contacted.)

(Add also a button with icon/symbol for sending us an email)
