This presentation is supported by an unrestricted educational grant awarded to NAADAC, the Association for Addiction Professionals by Cephalon, Inc. and Alkermes, Inc.

NAADAC, in partnership with Cephalon, Inc. and Alkermes, Inc., has launched an online version of NAADAC Life-Long Learning Series, Pharmacotherapy: Integrating New Tools into Practice.

This online course was presented live by Dr. Carlo DiClemente and Mary Woods and recorded at the CAADAC/NAADAC/NALGAP Annual Conference in Burbank, California, on Saturday, September 30, 2006.

NAADAC has made this educational seminar available to all addiction professionals via an online course located at www.naadac.org/recoverytools. By watching and completing the online course, participants will receive three (3) continuing education credits and a printable certificate of completion.

Go to www.naadac.org/recoverytools to earn your continuing education credits.
