CHARLIE

This poor girl was found alone, wandering the streets. She spent a while in adoptions before she found her forever family.

December 2014

Charlie spends the best parts of her day watching the birds and squirrels run around outside. She especially enjoys head scratches, belly rubs and will never grow tired of playing with her cat wand.

A close-up portrait of a dog named Zander. He has black fur with tan markings on his face and ears. His eyes are brown and expressive, looking slightly to the right. His nose is black and prominent. The background is a soft, out-of-focus light blue and white.

ZANDER

Zander was surrendered by his original owners at one and a half years old. He was adopted for only 2 weeks before he was returned again. He was a shy dog who needed a confidence boost.

January 2015

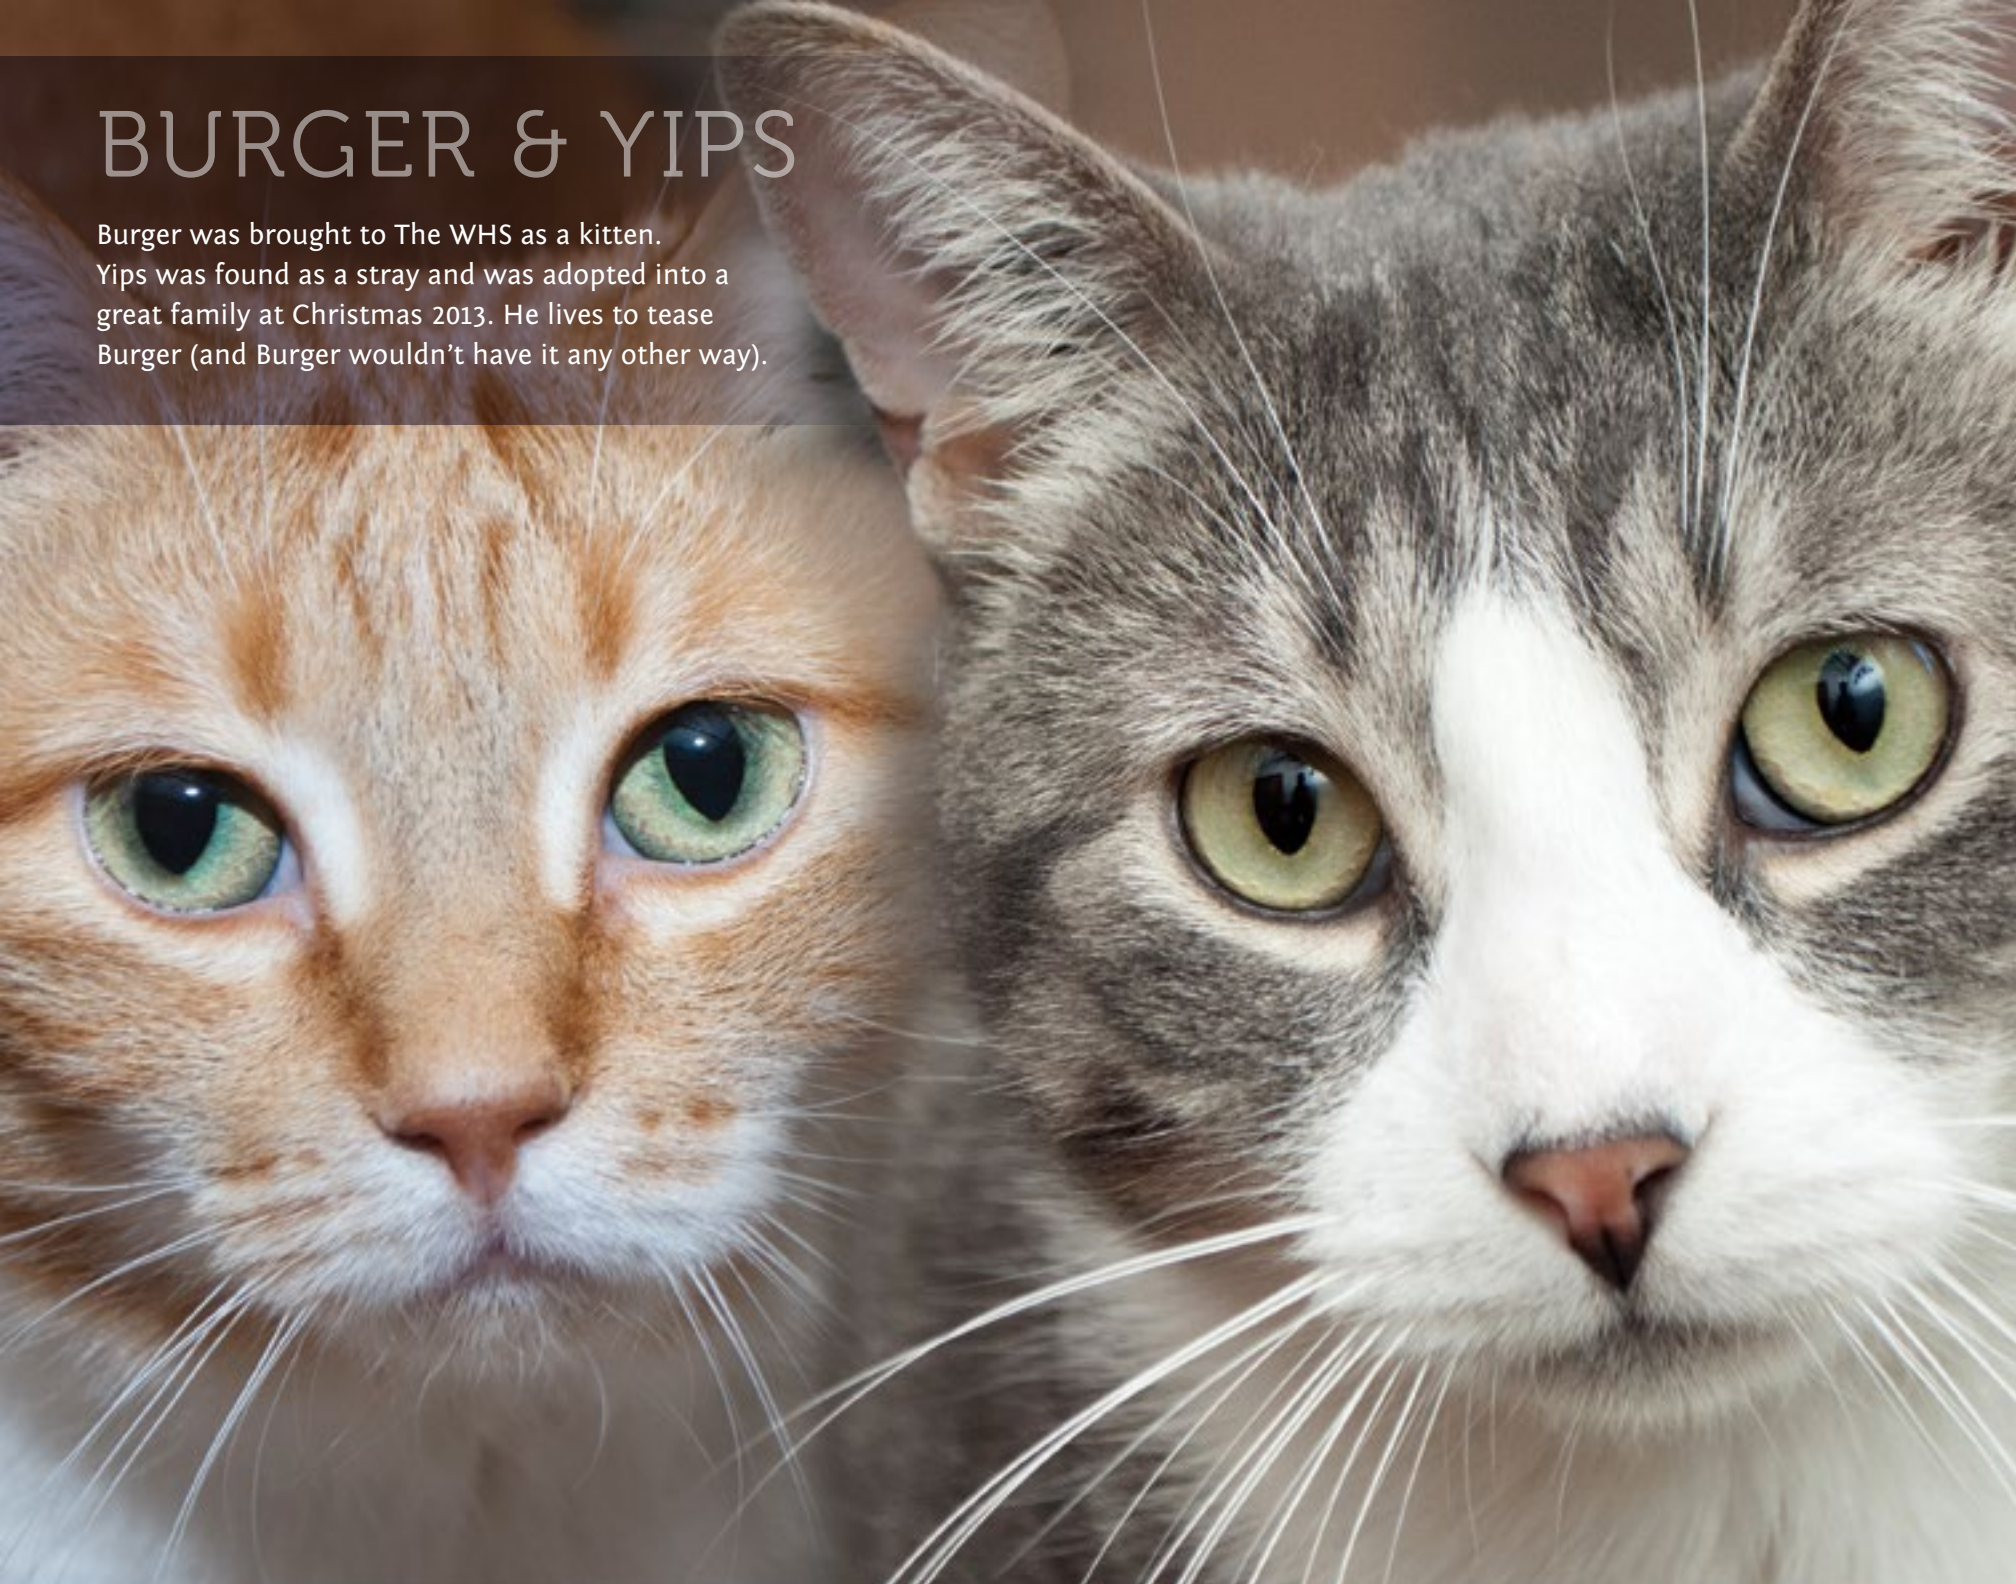

Zander was adopted into his forever home after spending a little more time at the shelter. He is the sweetest guy who loves to cuddle and play.

BURGER & YIPS

Burger was brought to The WHS as a kitten.
Yips was found as a stray and was adopted into a great family at Christmas 2013. He lives to tease
Burger (and Burger wouldn't have it any other way).

February 2015

Burger loves belly rubs and meowing loudly when the food dish is not filled to his standards. Yips aggressively head butts his humans and "grooms" everything in sight, including his tiny human.

TEENIE

Teenie was a stray cat who had been hit by a car and abandoned. Unable to bear weight on her front left leg, Teenie required immediate surgery to have it amputated.

March 2015

The WHS clinic worked to help her walk again. After spending time recovering in a foster home; Teenie was promptly adopted. This sweet, cuddly girl doesn't let her missing leg slow her down!

CASEY

Casey was rescued from a reserve up north and brought into The Winnipeg Humane Society when she was under one month. She needed to spend some time with a foster family before she was ready for adoption.

April 2015

*Casey didn't even make her way into adoption.
Her foster family fell in love her and didn't want to part with her! She is so happy in her new forever home!*

AMELIA

Amelia was found afraid and alone on the busy streets of the North End. She was brought to The Winnipeg Humane Society so she might have a chance to be reunited with her owners. When she entered The WHS, she had no means of identification, and no one came looking for her.

May 2015

Amelia was adopted by her rescuers. She enjoys running around the dog park, learning and performing new tricks, cuddling with her human parents, and playing with her cat brother.

SIR PAUL & LADY LINDA McCATNEY

Sir Paul McCatney came to the WHS as a stray, just looking for a little bit of Help! Fittingly, WHS behaviour workers determined his personality type to be “Leader of the Band”.

June 2015

Upon meeting him for the first time, Paul's new family said they saw something special in the green-eyed feline. Their Long and Winding Road has led to a happy forever home where he is loved and spoiled every day.

SADIE

Sadie was surrendered by her previous owner because she barked too much. She was very shy and fearful. The WHS behaviour team worked with her to make her learn to trust humans again.

July 2015

Now Sadie is playful, affectionate, and actually likes people once she has had a chance to get to know them. Her interests include going for walks, treats, squirrel spotting, hiding her rawhide in secret places, tummy rubs and guarding the house.

WILLIAM

William came to The WHS with his brother. They were strays, and had been hanging around someone's yard for about a week. For a "street cat" he was so friendly and affectionate! He greeted his adopter with purrs and headbutts and jumped right up on her lap as if they were old friends.

August 2015

William is a very friendly, playful companion. He still has a bit of a wild side, though, as he likes to climb up on cupboards and pounce on innocent objects like slippers and oven mitts!

HEMI

Hemi was surrendered to The WHS with his mom and siblings. His future adopter spotted him amongst the puppy kennels during her volunteer dog walker shift. She found herself going back and adopting Hemi the next day.

September 2015

Hemi is smart, quick, and a great jumper. He gets great energy spurts, but is doggone tired after them. Hemi brings so much joy into his owner's life, and she is so proud that he is her pup!

MANDY

Mandy was a victim of a hit-and-run. This poor girl needed to have her right hind leg amputated.

October 2015

Mandy and her new owner instantly connected at The WHS clinic. Today, she is a very happy, active pup who – even with only 3 legs – can outrun most dogs at the dog park! “She’s a part of the family and very much loved!”

STORMY

Stormy was surrendered to The WHS when he was ten months old. Because of his gentle and friendly nature The WHS decided to keep him as a resident 'shelter cat'. He had various 'duties', the main one of which was serving as the 'therapy cat', providing lots of love and affection to everyone. After four wonderful years he was granted a well-deserved retirement.

November 2015

Stormy is still as gentle and friendly as ever and his forever family really enjoys having him, they are so grateful that Stormy is spending his retirement years with them.

TUCKER

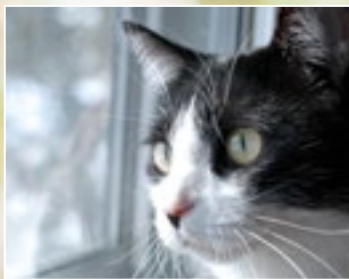

Tucker was a pup found wondering alone one Cold December. He was a goofy little pup, with satellite dish ears he has to grow into, and a voice all his own. His family fell in love with him when they came upon him sitting on a chair, staring out the window of his room at The WHS.

December 2015

Tucker spends his time with his two furry sisters and looks forward to ball season every year. He loves to sleep under the covers, and will tap you on the shoulder to let you know he wants under.
