

Our love for chicken inspires us to produce the very best chickens, meet the highest international standards of food hygiene and build the poultry industry in Tanzania.

Established in 2010, under the guidance of food processing experts at Bahari Bounty Group, Kuku Poa believes in producing, processing and packaging perfect chicken here in Tanzania.

We work with hotels, restaurants and supermarkets across the country to supply farm fresh chickens and chicken parts. Because our experts oversee the entire process of production you can be sure that the birds you buy from us have been reared under ethical conditions, slaughtered using halal guidelines and processed to produce the healthiest, tastiest and most succulent chickens.

- Kuku Poa promises to deliver:
- Consistently high-quality products
  - Outstanding tasting chicken
  - Exceptional customer services
  - Regular, reliable deliveries
  - Flexible customer-built ordering
  - Competitive prices
